

References for NARE articles in IGAC Newsletter #24

NOTE: At the time Newsletter #24 was published, many of the cited papers were still in review, so they were "in press, 2001" (for example). Below we show the full citation for papers that have since been published. Where the publication year is different from the year originally cited in the articles, both the publication year and the year cited in the article is noted, as in the Cooper et al. citations below.
